TROUTNER CASE HAS A SEQUEL

Head of Hill Produce Company Served with Warrant

Walter Hill, of the Walter Hill Produce company of Arizona, California and New Mexico, was served with a bench warrant yesterday. He was released on his own recognizance and will appear before Judge Stanford of the superior court at 9:30 o'clock this morning for arraignment. County Attorney Clyde M. Gandy filed information against Mr. Hill on September 24 for selling intoxicating liquor, July 16, to L. E. Troutner, who is now serving a term in the county jail for selling "bulldog cider."

Attorney Clyde M. Gandy filed information against Mr. Hill September 24, charging him with a violation of the prohibition amendment. The complaint against Mr. Hill was a sequel of the prosecution and conviction of L. E. Troutner, charged with the sale of "bulldog cider," which in the form in which it was dispensed by him was highly intoxicating. Troutner claimed to have purchased the cider from the company of which Mr. Hill is the head.

But it is claimed by Mr. Hill and his employees that the cider bought by Troutner and the cider sold by him were two widely different beverages. It was purchased by the Hill company from a Denver concern and was a cider in which fermentation had been arrested and was as non-intoxicating as grape juice. Nor was it then known as "Bulldog Cider." That was a name invented by Troutner. When Troutner was arrested the officers found several empty grain alcohol bottles whose contents had evidently been used in "treating" the cider.

The attorneys for Mr. Hill are Armstrong & Ward.

The defendants waived the preliminary and were bound over to the superior court.

Barr, local representative of the Commonwealth Bonding and Casualty Insurance company to report on or before October 5, 1915 the amount and character of such assets and a description of the records of the company in this state. ## IT WAS ALL THE WORK OF ONE LITTLE AD

It Effected the Sale of 800 Bunches of Bananas

Mickie and Peters of the Arizona Grocery company said yesterday that they would not advertise any more in The Republican unless they felt strong for work. Yesterday morning this firm had an advertisement in this paper offering to sell bananas for 12½ cents a dozen. The advertisement appeared in no other paper and no hand bills announced the banana sale. It was a ten-inch advertisement and cost $3.

Mickie and Peters expected to sell some bananas as a result of their advertisement but they did not expect that the banana trade would overshadow the business of the store, and monopolize the time of one man. But that is what it did and he was a weary clerk when the store closed last night. But he was comforted by the reflection that he would not have to cut so many bananas today for they were nearly all sold, 800 dozen of them.

COMMISSION MEETING.—A meeting of the city commission will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the city hall. There is said to be a host of business to come up including the presentation of several resolutions for paving various districts. It is possible a report will be ready on the asylum sewer question. All the commissioners are in the city and it is expected that all will be present.

BABE IS INJURED.—After running into a wagon driven by an Indian on Central avenue at Madison street early last evening, resulting in a baby riding in the wagon, being thrown from its mother's arms, and perhaps inflicting serious injuries, the driver of a Ford automobile, according to police report, did not stop to inquire the extent of the child's injuries but proceeded. The police were instructed to keep a sharp lookout for the machine.

GUEST OF PURVINES.—T. M. Lawrence, of Springfield, Ill., who was formerly a partner of B. Lee Purvines, present proprietor of the Empress theater, while Mr. Purvines was engaged in the operation of a moving picture house in Springfield, dropped into Phoenix yesterday and spent the day in talking over old times with Purvines. LONG-FREELAND.—Miss Ruth Long, daughter of R. T. Long and Kenneth Gordon Freeland were married at 6:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the North Third avenue home of Dean Scarlett of the Trinity Pro-Cathedral, who read the service. Only a few relatives and close friends gathered in the Dean's study to witness the simple but impressive ceremony. The bride, who was unattended, wore a becoming tailored suit of fur trimmed brown cloth, and a smart velvet hat of the same shade. Edward Freeland was his brother's best man. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mason, of 1749 West Monroe street, entertained the bridal party and wedding guests at a prettily appointed supper after the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Freeland will occupy a residence at Monroe and Seventeenth avenue and be formerly at home after October 15. Mrs. Freeland is a delightful young woman who has many sincere friends and admirers. Equally popular is Mr. Freeland, who came here two years ago from New York. He has large ranch interests in the valley.
